

TRAVEL TRIANGLE | Blog

Honeymoon Destinations Season Hotels Travelogues Topical Q

TravelTriangle > Blog > International > malaysia > 41 Amazing Malaysia Tourist Attractions For An Adventure Of A Lifetime In 2022

2 SHARES

Facebook Twitter Pinterest

41 Amazing Malaysia Tourist Attractions For An Adventure Of A Lifetime In 2022

Follow Us On: Facebook, Pinterest, Twitter, YouTube

Malaysia Holiday Packages

2% Off
₹ 15000 per person
₹ 16129

Malaysia 4 Days Trip Package 4D & 3N
Kuala Lumpur

Upto 3 Stars Meals Sightseeing Transfers Stay Included

Customize & Get Quotes

WhatsApp

41 Amazing Malaysia Tourist Attractions For An Adventure Of A Lifetime In 2022

Malaysia is an amazing country, known for reflecting an eclectic blend of ancient customs, traditions, and culture with a dash of modernity. The country has a lot to offer to its discerning tourists in terms of all the Malaysia tourist attractions like beautiful islands, beaches, quaint towns, heritage sites, and adventure spots. If a Malaysia tour is on the cards, here's a quick list of best places to visit in Malaysia and mind it, it comes with a no-miss warning. Whether you're looking for nature, architecture, relaxation, or adventure, these places will ensure you have a great holiday in Malaysia. So, make sure you visit all of these Malaysia tourist places on your next trip to the country if you wish to experience the best of what this nation has to offer.

Malaysia Tourist Attractions: Best Islands And Mountains

We have shortlisted some of the best islands to visit in Malaysia with your family and friends for an awesome brief getaway. Prepare to be thrilled and have the best experience of sightseeing in Malaysia.

- Langkawi Island – Land Of Azure Waters
- Perhentian Island – Witness The Colorful Corals
- Penang – The Finest Of All
- Kinabatangan – Home To Exotic Wild
- Mount Kinabalu – Hiker's Paradise
- Pangkor Island – Serenity All Around
- Sipadan Island – The Top Diving Site

- Mantanani – Exotic Marine Life
- Redang Island – Home To A Marine Park
- Manukan Island – Exciting Water Sports
- Pulau Tioman – Path Less Taken

1. Langkawi Island – Land Of Azure Waters

Image Source

A beautiful archipelago, Langkawi Island is a destination known for its vast expanse of sandy beaches and azure blue water which enthrall the tourists. The Langkawi Geopark is a UNESCO heritage site that attracts a large number of visitors and is, undoubtedly, the top among the must visit places in Malaysia. It is a perfect manifestation of the geological heritage in the area. It is one of the best places to visit in Malaysia with family.

Major Attractions: Famous Cable Car that is popular among kids, as well as, adults.

Entry Fee: INR 15 – INR 20 per head for a one hour island tour

Tip: This beach is a must visit for total relaxation, rejuvenation and sightseeing in Malaysia.

2. LEGOLAND® Malaysia Resort – Be Dazzled

Image Source

You get to experience a time full of imagination. The LEGOLAND® Malaysia Resort is the first international theme park in Malaysia & the first LEGOLAND® theme park in Asia. Explore an area full of attractions that will completely dazzle you. This is a wonderful place to visit in Malaysia with kids as they are going to love the various rides, shows, slides and multiple other attractions.

What's more is that you can have a memorable time at the waterpark with more than 20 tubes and slides and over 70 LEGO® models. Enjoy an amazing underwater experience with more than 13,000 marine creatures from 11 habitat zones where you can even spot unique LEGO® figures along the journey!

Major Attractions: LEGOLAND® Water Park, SEA LIFE, LEGO®KINGDOMS, LEGO TECHNIC® , MINILAND, LEGO CITY, Land of Adventure, Imagination, LEGO®NINJAGO® World, The Beginning & The Big Shop

Entry Fee: Prices vary according to attraction you choose

Tip: Try to explore at least 1 activity from all the themes for a fulfilling experience

3. Perhentian Island – Witness The Colorful Corals

Image Source

A group of stunning, coral fringed islands – the Perhentian Island is located almost 19 km away from the North-eastern Malaysia. It is a part of marine park where activities like fishing are strictly prohibited. It is one of the most unique places to visit in the country. It is also counted among the best places to visit in Malaysia with friends.

Major Attractions: Transparent shallow waters near the coast allow a perfect glimpse of the colorful corals at this famous tourist place in Malaysia.

Entry Fee: INR 80 to INR 100 per adult at the Marine Park

Tip: These islands are among the best places to visit in Malaysia to enjoy the vibrant hues of corals.

4. Penang – The Finest Of All

Image Source

Located on the northwestern coast of Peninsular Malaysia, Penang is one of the finest Malaysian islands that you shouldn't miss on your trip. Famous as an exotic destination, the place offers its visitors so much to explore. This city's Wonderfood Museum, Fort Cornwallis, Reclining Buddha, Burmese Temple and Waterfront Village just happen to be some of the best places in Malaysia for you to visit.

Major Attractions: Rainbow Skywalk, Street of Harmony and Waterfront Village are some of the places you must visit.

Entry Fee: NA

Tip: Don't miss out on Armenian Street Art and Wonderfood Museum.

5. Kinabatangan – Home To Exotic Wild

Image Source

Located to the east of Sabah, Kinabatangan is known for its rainforest remains. Its wildlife sanctuary attracts a large number of wildlife lovers at this tourist attraction in Malaysia. Among the most romantic places to visit in Malaysia, this one tops the list.

Location: Northeastern Borneo, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Visit the Jungle Camp to enjoy wildlife in its unhindered natural habitat.

Entry Fee: INR 6000 per person (Minimum 2 adults) for 2 days, 1 night trip to the Kinabatangan Jungle Camp

Tip: Enjoy an early morning cruise to watch out rich wildlife

6. Mount Kinabalu – Hiker's Paradise

Image Source

The tallest mountain of Borneo, Mount Kinabalu is a striking sight to behold. Hikers love to enjoy impressive trails that allow a glimpse of the picturesque surroundings of the region. Quite popular among people with adventurous bones, it is one of the best Malaysia visiting place to have a thrilling experience. Among the good places to visit in Malaysia, this one tops the list.

Location: West Coast Division, Sabah, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Zip line to experience the rush that comes with high velocity

Entry Fee: No Entry Fee

Tip: Enjoy amazing sights and thrilling activities at this tourist place in Malaysia.

7. Pangkor Island – Serenity All Around

Image Source

If you're seeking peace and solitude with the perfect mix of beauty and serenity, you should be heading to Pangkor Island, one of the most tranquil Malaysia tourist attractions. Lying near Perak's coast, this is one of the best Malaysia tourist attractions that features empty beaches, crystal clear and clean water, and dense jungles covering the center of the island. You'll definitely love the chance to sunbathe under swaying palms here without another soul in sight. When you're here, you must check out the Dutch Colonial Fort, take pictures of a traditional wooden jetty, and feed hornbills at the Sunset View Chalet.

Location: West coast of Peninsular Malaysia

Major Attractions: Dutch Colonial Fort, Sunset View Chalet

8. Sipadan Island – The Top Diving Site

Image Source

The petite island near Semporna in Sabah is among the world's top diving sites and surely one of the best Malaysia tourist attractions. After attaining the status of a protected reserve in 2002, only a handful of tourists at a time are given permission to visit this limestone pinnacle which is one of the best islands near Kuala Lumpur. So, make sure you get your permit way in advance so that you do not miss out on the experience of seeing one of the best Malaysia attractions. Preserving its delicate ecology, this island has everything from unique flora to bizarre fauna to make your holiday a special one.

Location: Celebes Sea off the east coast of Sabah, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Diving and rare fauna

9. Mantanani – Exotic Marine Life

Image Source

Sabah's Mantanani Islands located near Kota Belud are some of the most famous tourist places in Malaysia that offer Borneo's finest diving sites just an hour from Kota Kinabalu. It's among the most famous places in Malaysia owing to its diving locales and a favorite of all snorkelers and divers who flock to this island on day trips from the capital city. Swarming in large numbers, divers come in from all parts of the world at these islands to wander in its clear waters and meet seahorses and stingrays. Scuba-certified divers can choose from more than 20 locations here for these water sports in Malaysia.

Location: North-west coast of the state of Sabah, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Diving and snorkeling sites

10. Redang Island – Home To A Marine Park

Image Source

The Redang Island is a cluster of 9 islands that form this unique locale for a day tour from the mainland. The Rendang Island Marine Park located near Terengganu State is among the most exciting Malaysia tourist attractions. Tucked near the Perhentian Islands, this charming archipelago attracts adventure seekers and nature lovers who are more into a luxurious holiday than backpacking. Find some of the best hotels and resorts in Malaysia on these islands for a lavish holiday experience. Other than luxury and great views, Redang's thriving diving scene also makes it one of the most amazing tourist places in Malaysia.

Location: Kuala Terengganu, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Luxury hotels, beach resorts, diving sites

11. Manukan Island – Exciting Water Sports

Image Source

The second largest island sitting in the first ever marine national park of Malaysia, Manukan Island is one of the exciting tourist places in Malaysia that one should visit at least once in a lifetime. Home to an extensive number of water sports and beaches, this island has plenty to offer to locals and travelers alike. The Island is famed for its coral reefs that reek of vibrant and eye-catching colors. Accessible by a ferry from Kota Kinabalu, this island offers the best of facilities amidst all the islands of Malaysia.

Location: Tunku Abdul Rahman National Park, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Water Sports, Coral Reefs

11. Manukan Island – Exciting Water Sports

Image Source

The second largest island sitting in the first ever marine national park of Malaysia, Manukan Island is one of the exciting tourist places in Malaysia that one should visit at least once in a lifetime. Home to an extensive number of water sports and beaches, this island has plenty to offer to locals and travelers alike. The Island is famed for its coral reefs that reek of vibrant and eye-catching colors. Accessible by a ferry from Kota Kinabalu, this island offers the best of facilities amidst all the islands of Malaysia.

Location: Tunku Abdul Rahman National Park, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Water Sports, Coral Reefs

12. Pulau Tioman – Path Less Taken

Image Source

Sitting on the east coast of peninsular Malaysia, Pulau Tioman is one of the smallest islands. It has been tagged as one of the most beautiful places to see in Malaysia that is nothing less than paradise on earth. The dense, lush green forests and pristine blue waters of this island does not fail to reek of serenity and alluring vibes. Ranking at the top on the list of paths less taken, Pulau Tioman usually remains deserted other than the months when Malaysia experiences monsoon (November to February).

Location: Rompin District, Pahang, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Water Sports, Solitude

Malaysia Tourist Attractions: Best Cities, Towns, And Villages

We have shortlisted splendid cities, towns, and villages in Malaysia that you must visit this year for a wonderful time with your loved ones. Check out all of these Malaysia tourist places for the best trip of your life.

- Melaka – The City Of Ancient Architecture
- George Town – Reeks Of Historic Vibes
- Perak – A Plate Full Of Adventure
- Serdang – Try Zorbing
- Cameron Highlands – Nature At Its Best
- Johor Bahru – Indulge In The Local Cuisine
- Klang – Try Out The Herbal Flavors
- Alor Setar – The Rice Bowl Of Malaysia
- Semporna – Crystal Clear Waters
- Putrajaya – The Perfectly Planned City

13. Melaka – The City Of Ancient Architecture

Image Source

In 2008, Maleka attained the Unesco Heritage Site status and is considered among the must see places in Malaysia, since then. Melaka, located 2 hours away from Kuala Lumpur, is one of the most famous trading ports of Southeast Asia. Its ancient architecture speaks volumes about its erstwhile grandeur. Housing some of the best Malaysia tourist attractions, the city is not to be missed. Tripping with family? Don't forget to visit classic places in Melaka for kids like the Nyonya Heritage Museum.

Major Attractions: Visit Baba and Nyonya Heritage Museum if you are a history buff to know more about Malays-Chinese local history.

Entry Fee: INR 130 – INR 150 for adults (Baba and Nyonya Heritage Museum)

Tip: Enjoy local delicacies at Melaka, a famous tourist place in Malaysia.

14. George Town – Reeks Of Historic Vibes

Image Source

George Town, a popular historical town, is one among all Malaysia tourist places that history buffs will love to visit. Adorned with some exquisite heritage sites and pilgrimage monuments, the town offers glimpses of erstwhile times. Also, it has its own place among the best places to visit in Malaysia.

Location: Penang, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Kapitan Keling Mosque, Cheong Fatt Tze Mansion and beautiful Buddhist Temples.

Entry Fee: No Entry Fee to this quaint tourist place in Malaysia.

Tip: Enjoy the Vibrant Street art by the local artists at this tourist destination in Malaysia.

15. Perak – A Plate Full Of Adventure

Image Source

Located just one and a half hour away from Kuala Lumpur, adventure tourists can experience the thrill of water rafting in Perak. It takes place in the Ulu Slim River, which is suitable for Grade 3+ rafting activity. Excellent equipments are available for the rafters at this famous tourist attraction in Malaysia.

Location: NA

Major Attractions: The aboriginal village and scenic landscape all around

Entry Fee: INR 2,800 – INR 3000 per person

Tip: The equipment available for the rafters here is excellent, which implies Perak is a good place to raft.

16. Serdang – Try Zorbing

Image Source

A popular recreational activity, Zorbing can be enjoyed in Serdang. Rolling inside an overblown transparent plastic ball is an amazing experience. No matter, if its in water or on a hard surface. It is, hands down, one of the best Malaysia tourist attractions.

Major Attractions: Don't miss Zorbing at Serdang. It is a among the popular Malaysia tourist attractions here.

Entry Fee: INR 2,400 – INR 3,000

Tip: Ensure that your sense of balance is sharp.

17. Cameron Highlands – Nature At Its Best

Image Source

If you want to be at the hills in Malaysia then Cameron Highlands is the place for you. One of the oldest tourist spots in Malaysia, this hill station was established in the 1930s and is now inhabited by a group of people who are very diverse and have their impact on the culture too. Mesmerising tea estates, great weather, cascading waterfalls, strawberry farms and pretty orchards make reasons enough for you to visit this place.

Location: Pahang, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Tea estates, strawberry farms and gushing waterfalls are the prime reasons for you to visit the place.

Entry Fee: INR 350 – INR 400

Tip: Don't miss out on the beautiful orchards and strawberry farms.

18. Johor Bahru – Indulge In The Local Cuisine

Image Source

The bustling Malaysian city, Johor Bahru is located in the Southernmost end of the country. There's a causeway bridge in Johor connecting Malaysia to Singapore. You would surely enjoy visiting Istana Besar, a grand royal palace in the city, built in 1866 by the Sultan of Johor. Now it has been turned into Royal Abu Bakar Museum. Johor Bahru is also a great place for exploring Malaysian food.

Location: Johor, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Royal Abu Bakar Museum, Legoland Malaysia, Sanrio Hello Kitty Town

Entry Fee: NA

Tip: Taking a local transport will help you absorb the culture best

19. Klang – Try Out The Herbal Flavors

Image Source

Klang is another town in Malaysia which is appreciated for amazing local food. One of the most popular dishes being Bak Kut Teh, the pork rib soup. The food here is high on herbal flavours. You can visit the Sultan Abdul Aziz Royal Gallery to get a peek into the intriguing royal history of Selangor. This town also houses the largest port in the country, Port Klang.

Location: Selangor, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Sultan Abdul Aziz Royal Gallery, Laman Seni 7, SnowWalk, Trick Art Museum

Entry Fee: NA

Tip: Do not miss trying new food dishes here

20. Alor Setar – The Rice Bowl Of Malaysia

Image Source

Alor Setar is among the most important places to see in Malaysia owing to the fact that it's the 'rice bowl of Malaysia'. This capital of Kedah State is full of paddy fields as well as delightful rolling hills that are a treat to the eyes! The city exhibits the typical Malay culture and is home to some interesting galleries, lovely architecture, and pretty beaches that brings people here from near and far. It is located very near to the stunning Pulau Langkawi beach which provides as a great place for a day trip from this city.

Location: Kota Setar, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Art galleries, beaches, paddy fields

21. Semporna – Crystal Clear Waters

Image Source

The city of Semporna is famed for the Semporna Archipelago, which is one of the most beautiful Malaysia tourist attractions luring in travelers from around the world. An otherwise hectic town with lots of traffic, this city has only recently become a popular tourist destination owing to this archipelago. If you're visiting places in Malaysia that have fewer tourist attractions and more natural charm, then this should be on the top of your list. Other than nature, this city also has a mosque and distinctive hotels lining the stunning waterfront.

Location: Borneo, Sabah, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Skull Hill, Semporna Archipelago

22. Putrajaya – The Perfectly Planned City

Image Source

Lying over 30 km away from Kuala Lumpur, the planned city of Putrajaya happens to be among the most scenic tourist destinations in Malaysia and has the government's administrative body. Possessing impressive architecture, monuments, green spaces, lavish parks, and other tourist attractions, this developed city reflects Malaysia's ambition and vision for the future. More than anything else, it's a great place to experience the nightlife of Malaysia. You'll find it beautifully lit up at night with a lot of trendy bars and clubs luring you in. Also, the city is thinly populated, making it one of the most offbeat and peaceful places for sightseeing in Malaysia.

Location: South of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Putra Mosque, Perdana Putra, Putra Bridge, Putrajaya Lake

Malaysia Tourist Attractions: Best Wildlife Places

There are some of the most exotic wildlife places to visit in Malaysia that protect land and aquatic animals. If you are a nature lover, you would surely enjoy visiting these charming Malaysia tourist spots.

- Aquaria KLCC – Walk Amidst The Marine Life
- Kuala Lumpur Bird Park – Paradise For Bird Watchers
- Bako National Park – Epitome Of Natural Beauty
- Semengoh Nature Reserve – Land Of Orangutans
- Taman Negara – Oldest Rainforest

- Kilim Karst Geoforest Park – For Extravagant Mangroves
- Tunku Abdul Rahman Park – Ample Of Beach Activities
- Turtle Sanctuary Beach – Solace And Solitude
- Gunung Gading National Park – Home To The Largest Flower Ever

23. Aquaria KLCC – Walk Amidst The Marine Life

Image Source

Said to be the largest aquarium in the world, the Aquaria KLCC consists of more than 5000 marine and freshwater creatures including the likes of garfishes, massive arapaimas and giant groupers and more. Seahorses, huge tiger sharks and bright and colourful coral fishes are the major attractions of this place. The place is one of the best tourist attractions in Malaysia and you won't wanna miss out on this one.

Location: Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre, Jalan Pinang, Kuala Lumpur City Centre, 50088 Kuala Lumpur, Wilayah Persekutuan Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Colourful coral fishes and big tiger sharks which can be scary.

Entry Fee: INR 1200 for adults | INR 1,000 for kids

Tip: Enjoy and see the enriching and vast variety of water animals

24. Kuala Lumpur Bird Park – Paradise For Bird Watchers

The Bird Park in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia is divided into four zones out of which Zone 1 and Zone 2 are for the free flight of the birds where they are left to fly and given a nice environment to breed naturally. It is a treat to the eyes to watch all the colorful birds fly together in these areas. Zone 3 of the Kuala Lumpur Bird Park is the Hornbill Park and the Zone 4 consists of a number of cages and separate areas for different types of birds.

Location: KL Bird Park, 920, Jalan Cenderawasih, Perdana Botanical Gardens, 50480 Kuala Lumpur, Federal Territory of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Some of the major attractions of the Kuala Lumpur Bird Park are Hornbill Park, parrots, the egg incubation area, flamingo pond, bird gallery, and others.

Entry Fee: INR 850 for adults | INR 700 for kids.

Tip: Do not litter the park.

25. Bako National Park – Epitome Of Natural Beauty

Image Source

The oldest national park in Sarawak, Bako National Park is an epitome of natural beauty and a vast and wide variety of animals. With seven different rainforest ecosystems and an adventurous and exciting trek where you can explore the wide variety of wildlife and finish the trek on reaching a beautiful beach Bako National Park is where you should be at.

Location: Sarawak, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Interact with nature and explore seven different rainforest ecosystems at once.

Entry Fee: INR 150 – INR 200

26. Semenggoh Nature Reserve – Land Of Orangutans

Image Source

The main purpose behind the establishment of Semenggoh Nature Reserve is to provide nourishment, love and care for animals who have been injured or abandoned. Made in 1975, this natural reserve has more than 9000 species of endangered species. Well known for Orangutan preservation, this place also has another unique factor which is that the animals are released once they are completely rehabilitated here. And that's what makes it one of the fascinating Malaysia tourist places.

Location: 93250 Siburan, Sarawak, Malaysia

Major Attractions: The variety of wildlife present here attracts the tourists.

Entry Fee: INR 170 – INR 200 for adults; INR 80 – INR 100 for children

Tip: The Orang-utans development cycle here(9 AM and 10 AM; 3 PM and 3:30 PM) should not be missed.

27. Taman Negara – Oldest Rainforest

Image Source

The oldest rainforest in the world, Taman Negara is a quite and peaceful rainforest in the bustling Malaysia. One of the most popular ecotourism destinations in Malaysia this place offers a respite from the monotony of everyday life and many activities for relaxation and rejuvenation and definitely some adventure. You can take boating trips, try your hand at shooting, observe wildlife and trek at Gunung Tahan.

Location: 27000 Kuala Tahan, Pahang, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Jungle Walks during the night hours, aboriginal settlements at Orang Asli and canopy walks are what you should definitely do at Taman Negara.

Entry Fee: INR 17 – INR 20

Tip: Do try out the various activities you can at Taman Negara

28. Kilim Karst Geoforest Park – For Extravagant Mangroves

Image Source

The best way to explore the Kilim Karst Geoforest Park located in the enthralling Langkawi islands is through a boat tour. Known amongst the best places to enjoy natural mangroves this place is all about beauty. The visitors can explore and get to know about unique and distinct Limestone formations, swim in the rivers at the place and see and observe the migratory birds and learn about the medicinal plants present at this place.

Location: Malaysia, Kampung Kilim, MY 07000 Kedah Langkawi Kilim Sungai Kilim

Major Attractions: Let the beauty of suspended and distinct Bogak trees and the migratory birds take over you.

Entry Fee: INR 3500 -INR 8500 for a boat and tour guide

Tip: Enjoy the beauty of Bogak trees and watch flying foxes

29. Tunku Abdul Rahman Park – Ample Of Beach Activities

Image Source

A group of five islands namely Pulau Gaya, Pulau Sapi, Pulau Manukan, Pulau Mamutik and Pulau Sulug is what forms the Tunku Abdul Rahman Park. If you are a beach person then there's good news for you! The Tunku Abdul Rahman Park organizes many fun and exciting beach activities. Not just that there is something for water babies too. You can indulge in scuba diving or snorkeling or observe the fascinating marine life.

Location: Sabah, Malaysia

Major Attractions: The exciting beach activities are what most people visit the place for.

Entry Fee: INR 350 for adults; INR 250 for children

Tip: If you want to try out the beach activities then make prior bookings for the same.

30. Turtle Sanctuary Beach – Solace And Solitude

Image Source

If you want some privacy and stunning beaches with scenic views then Turtle Sanctuary Beach is your best bet. With its clear waters, bright corals and exotic marine life this place is hard to miss. The best part is that there is not even a single building or resort in the vicinity and dense forests are what one sees till as far as one can see.

Major Attractions: Great location, bright corals and no commercialisation around the area.

Entry Fee: NA

Tip: You can catch many turtles laying eggs and many baby turtles hatching which is a rare sight.

31. Gunung Gading National Park – Home To The Largest Flower Ever

Image Source

Known for being home to the largest flower in the entire world, Gunung Gading National Park is one of the famous places in Malaysia, especially for the to-be botanists or nature admirers. Rafflesia blooms that are around three feet high can be found here. Although these flowers can die just after a few days, Rafflesia can bloom anytime of the year. Apart from this, this National Park has ample to offer including clear beaches, rugged and stunning mountains, and the lush green jungles where one can hike.

Location: Southwest Sarawak, Malaysia

Major Attractions: World's largest flower -Rafflesia, hiking spots in the jungles, and beaches for strolling around

Entry Fee:INR 340 for adults; INR 120 for children

Tip: You can look at the largest flower but avoid smelling the Rafflesia blooms as it has a nasty fragrance.

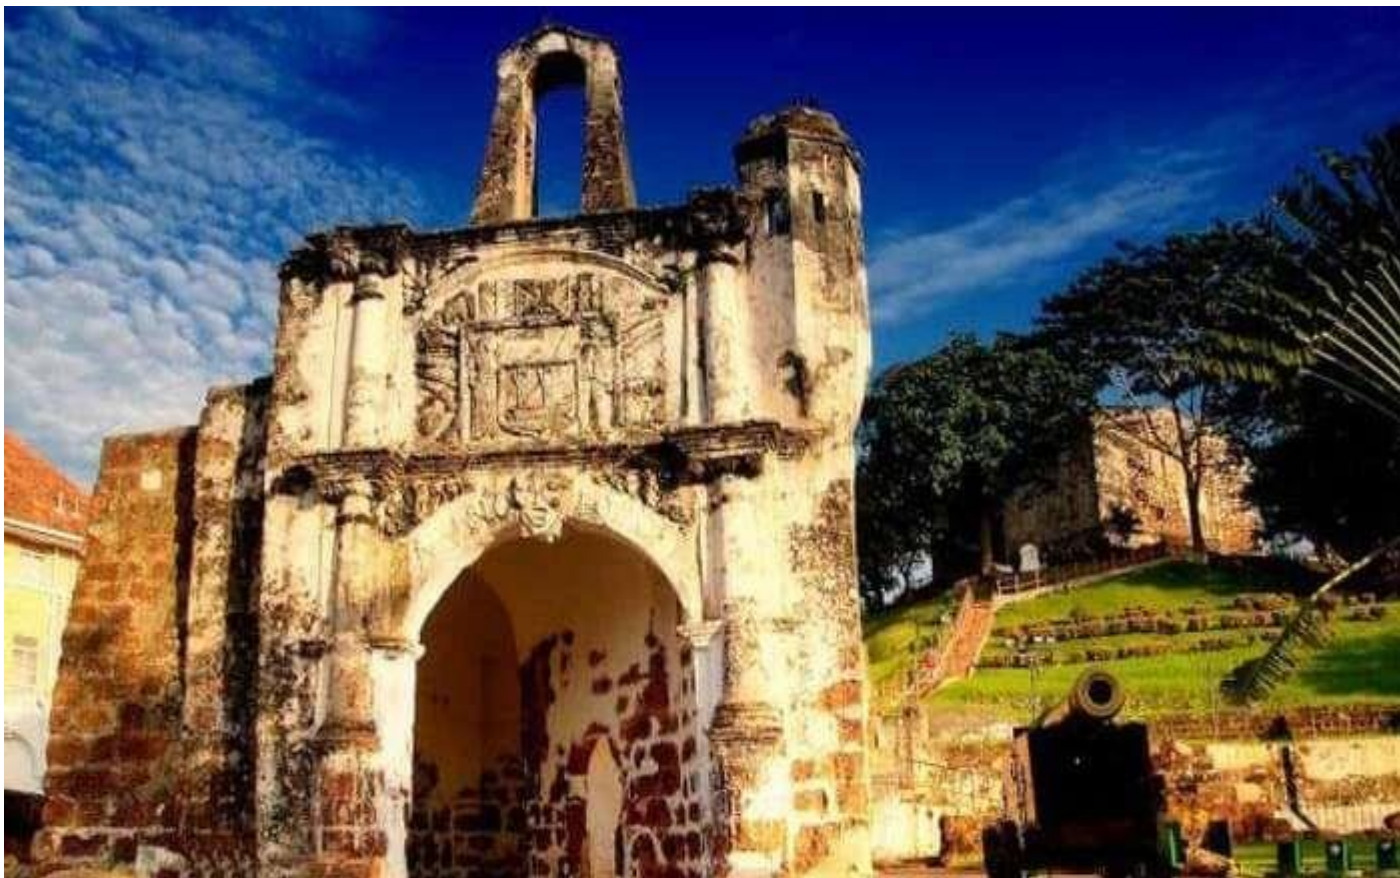

Other Tourist Attractions In Malaysia

There are several historical, adventurous, and entertaining tourist places to visit in Malaysia. Make sure you include all of these outstanding Malaysia tourist spots in your itinerary for a great trip.

- A'Famosa Fortress – For A Hint Of Europe
- Maran Murugan Temple – Perfect Craftmanship
- ATV Adventure Park – For A Dose Of Thrill And Entertainment

- Bukit Bintang – Be A Part Of Crazy
- Menara Kuala Lumpur Tower – Stunning Cityscapes
- Petronas Twin Towers – Most Iconic Of All
- Sunway Lagoon – Embrace That Inner Child
- Islamic Arts Museum – An Insight Into The Culture
- Batu Caves – Magnet For Adventure Enthusiasts
- Kek Lok Si Temple – Popular Amidst Pilgrims

32. A’Famosa Fortress – For A Hint Of Europe

Image Source

In Portuguese, the meaning of A’Famosa is “famous” and this magnificent fortress is actually extremely popular among tourists. The glimpses of European architecture can be seen here, which makes it one of the most unusual Malaysia tourist places. A’Famosa Fortress is perfect if you are looking for some light sightseeing in Malaysia.

Location: Jalan Parameswara, Bandar Hilir, 78000 Alor Gajah, Melaka, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Ammunition-storage room, officers’ quarters and captain’s residence.

Entry Fee: No Entry Fee to this monumental Malaysia tourist attraction.

Tip: Best to visit in the early morning to avoid crowds thronging to the place.

33. Maran Murugan Temple – Perfect Craftmanship

Image Source

Maran Murugan temple is a famous temple dedicated to the Hindu God, Lord Murugan. It has a mysterious past and the story of its origin is quite interesting. Quite unique of all the places to visit in Malaysia, this one is prominent due to its amazing craftsmanship.

Location: Sri Maran Marathandavar Aalayam, Jalan Kuantan – Jerantut, Pahang, 26500 Maran, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Maran Murugan temple is known for its amazing architecture and striking golden color painted exterior.

Entry Fee: No Entry Fee

Tip: Visit during Morning Darshan to enjoy the solitude of the temple.

34. ATV Adventure Park – For A Dose Of Thrill And Entertainment

Image Source

Enjoy an exciting experience of driving All Terrain Vehicles at a mind-numbing pace in the Adventure Park. This entertainment park is most perfect to enjoy some of the soul thrilling activities of all the best places to go in Malaysia for a thrilling day out.

Location: Atv Adventure, Kampung Kemensah, 68000, Selangor, Malaysia

Major Attractions: Cross country runs and Sofea Jane Waterfall

Entry Fee: INR 850 to INR 5,200

Tip: Join the training park if you are an amateur, willing to master quadro-cycling.

35. Bukit Bintang – Be A Part Of Crazy

On a visit to Kuala Lumpur, one can also experience the best of nightlife and shopping in Bukit Bintang. Streets of Bukit Bintang get a new look after 10 PM when all the restaurants and nightclubs increase their music volume to attract a huge number of tourists towards them. The area gets crowded with youths, while bright lights make the place look vibrant and festive.

Location: Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Major Attractions: The Pavilion KL is one of the best shopping malls that stores products of a large number of European brands like Dolce and Gabbana, MaxMara, Versace, and others.

Entry Fee: No entry fee

Tip: Beware of the pickpockets, who take advantage of the crowd.

36. Menara Kuala Lumpur Tower – Stunning Cityscapes

The KL Tower is a 421 meters tall building, that provides one of the most stunning views of the city, and the KL Tower observation deck at the height of 276 meters. The KL Tower skybox provides a unique experience of the city in a panoramic view that will help you see the whole city uninterrupted and provide you a full 360-degree experience. As you move up and reach the KL Tower Skydeck, you get to view the city from its mesmerizing height.

Location: No. 2 Jalan Punchak, Off, Jalan P Ramlee, Kuala Lumpur, 50250 Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Major Attractions: The tower also has a lot of other attractions for the tourists, such as Mini Zoo, Upside Down House, XD Theatre, a 360-degree panoramic view restaurant, Malaysia Cultural Village, and more.

Entry Fee: INR 830 for adults and INR 500 for kids

Tip: The tower has 22 levels with a total of 2058 steps, so brace yourself for climbing these steps.

37. Petronas Twin Towers – Most Iconic Of All

This is one of the most iconic places to visit in Malaysia. The Petronas Twin Towers dominate the Kuala Lumpur skyline and have become a part of the local culture and national identity. The Petronas Towers consists of two towers named as tower 1 and tower 2. Tower 1 is fully occupied by Petronas and its subsidiaries, and Tower 2 has been made available to various companies for office space on lease including Microsoft, Reuters, Al Jazeera English, Boeing, IBM, TCS and many more.

Location: Concourse Level, Lower Ground, Kuala Lumpur City Centre, 50088 Kuala Lumpur, Wilayah Persekutuan Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Major Attractions: The upmarket retail center of Suria KLCC is known for expensive foreign goods and branded labels. The retail center includes an aquarium and a science center all located at the feet of the Petronas Towers.

Entry Fee: INR 1400 for adults and INR 560 for kids

Tip: The sky bridge tickets are free, and you can tip a bellboy or taxi driver to get your ticket for you.

38. Sunway Lagoon – Embrace That Inner Child

Sunway Lagoon theme park is one of the places to visit in Malaysia with your family. It is a water park which offers a lot of rides and other things to do which are suitable for all age groups. With plenty of attractions and a bounty of fun activities in its store, a Sunway Lagoon tour often beguiles people to extend their excursion and enjoy every bit of it.

Location: 3, Jalan PJS 11/20, Bandar Sunway, 47500 Subang Jaya, Selangor, Malaysia

Major Attractions: There are various parks like the water park, amusement park, wildlife park, extreme park, scream park, etc. where people can have the best time of their lives.

Entry Fee: INR 2900 for adults and INR 2400 for kids.

Tip: To save money, one must travel by public transport which may take around 1.5 hours.

39. Islamic Arts Museum – An Insight Into The Culture

Image Source

As they say art is the best way to express something the Islamic Arts Museum just goes on to be the living proof of the same. Opened for visitors on 12th December 1998 the museum is located in Perdana Botanical Garden and lies right in the heart of the city. Being the largest Islamic Art Museum in South East Asia, it is one of the popular places to visit in Malaysia. This Islamic Arts Museum contains 7000 artefacts which represent Islamic culture.

Location: Perdana, Jalan Lembah, Tasik Perdana, 50480 Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Major Attractions: The Quran and manuscripts gallery, the Chinese gallery and Indian gallery at Level 3 are definitely attention capturing.

Entry Fee: INR 15 for adults; INR 10 for children

Tip: Don't miss out on the fascinating galleries at this museum.

40. Batu Caves – Magnet For Adventure Enthusiasts

Image Source

Basically a limestone hill, Batu Caves is located almost 13 km away from the capital city. Even the novice can also try their hand at rock climbing with the help of local trainers here. It is quite popular among the top places to visit in Malaysia, for the adventure enthusiasts.

Location: Gombak, 68100 Batu Caves, Selangor, Malaysia

Major Attractions: The steep inclination of Batu Caves possess a major challenge for adventure enthusiasts.

Entry Fee: No Entry Fee (for rock climbing, fees differ with organizing companies)

Tip: Follow the instructions of the trainer to ensure your safety.

41. Kek Lok Si Temple – Popular Amidst Pilgrims

Image Source

Built in the year 1891, Kek Lok Si Temple is tagged as one of the significant Malaysia attractions. This is a Chinese-Buddhist temple that is often called 'The Temple of Supreme Bliss'. Kek Lok Si Temple is home to an extensive number of images of Buddha. This temple is one of the largest ones in Malaysia and witnesses an impeccable footfall of pilgrims throughout the Southeastern region of Asia. One can witness around 10,000 carvings of Buddha at this temple.

Location: Air Itam, Penang, Malaysia

Major Attractions: 10,000 carvings of Buddha on the walls. There is a hill entrance to the temple and it is home to various stalls serving food, drinks, and selling souvenirs.

Entry Fee: No Entry Fee

Tip: Take back some Buddhist souvenirs for your friends and family back home.

These Malaysia tourist attractions will conjure up images in your head long after you have quit the country. It is not unusual for travelers to return to the country after visiting it once. This is because Malaysia offers the best hospitality in the world. Don't believe us? Book your trip to Malaysia with TravelTriangle and see it for yourself.

Disclaimer: TravelTriangle claims no credit for images featured on our blog site unless otherwise noted. All visual content is copyrighted to its respectful owners. We try to link back to original sources whenever possible. If you own the rights to any of the images, and do not wish them to appear on TravelTriangle, please contact us and they will be promptly removed. We believe in providing proper attribution to the original author, artist or photographer.

Please Note: Any information published by TravelTriangle in any form of content is not intended to be a substitute for any kind of medical advice, and one must not take any action before consulting a professional medical expert of their own choice.

Reference

Mathur, A. (2021, October 27). You'd be sorry if you miss these awesome Malaysia tourist attractions in 2022. TravelTriangle. Retrieved November 10, 2021, from <https://traveltriangle.com/blog/malaysia-tourist-attractions/>.