WELCOME TO THE EAST COAST REGION

Imagine an idyllic island surrounded by the azure waters of the South China Sea, or a pristine tropical rainforest with rare, exotic plants and towering trees. Imagine invigorating hill resorts or charming coastal villages with fascinating cultural pursuits. Such places are not only found in dreams. In the East Coast Region in Peninsula Malaysia, dreams can become a reality.

The East Coast Region offers a lovely assemblage of nature, culture and a laidback atmosphere. There are three states in this region – Pahang, Kelantan and Terengganu. While Pahang is the most developed of the three states, Kelantan and Terengganu beckon with more rural landscapes and an old-world charm. Visitors who are familiar with the peninsula's west coast will notice a distinct difference in the east coast. Here, time seems to move at an unhurried pace and the busy city life makes way for a laidback lifestyle.

Within this region resides Taman Negara, a 130-million-year-old rainforest. Much to the delight of sun-seekers, the internationally-famed islands of Tioman, Perhentian, Redang and Lang Tengah offer exotic getaways and unforgettable undersea adventures. A number of Asia's premier hill resorts, such as Genting Highlands and Cameron Highlands, are also among the region's remarkable assets.

Filled with unique attractions, the East Coast Region is an oasis of serenity, perfect to unwind and relax in. Be enchanted by the magic of the East Coast Region.

The vessels are sold both locally and internationally. Pulau Duyong is also the venue of the Monsoon Cup Terengganu, a prestigious international sailing event.

Watch how the skilled craftsmen build these boats entirely from memory, without the use of any blueprint.

TENGGU TENGAH ZAHARAH MOSQUE

Built in 1994, the mosque showcases a combination of Moorish and modern architectural elements. It is dubbed as the 'Floating Mosque' for its unique design. Keropok lekor – A fried snack, keropok lekor is a thick, chewy cracker made of ground fish meat. Keropok lekor is best eaten with its special chilli dip.

Otak-otak – Slices of mackerel or prawns are marinated in a coconut and spice paste. They are then cooked over a charcoal fire. Otak-otak can be eaten as a snack, or together with rice.

Nekbat – Rice flour and eggs are the main ingredients of this dessert. It is eaten with a pandan-flavoured syrup.

Laksa Terengganu – Rice noodles and a fragrant fish gravy make Laksa Terengganu a simple but highly satisfying dish.

Getting Around

There are several interesting modes of transportation in Terengganu. Among them is the beautifully decorated Heritage Bus or town bus which plies the major tourist spots in the capital city of Kuala Terengganu. The bus operates on a hop-on hop-off concept. The starting point is at Taman Syahbandar, where visitors can choose from the two routes available. Among the destinations serviced by this bus is the State Museum, Noor Arfa Craft Complex, Islamic Civilisation Park, Pasar Payang Central Market and the Floating Mosque.

In addition, there are also local buses and taxis that ply the main towns within the state. Visitors are advised to determine the rates before boarding the taxi.

Brightly-decorated trishaws are another attraction in Kuala Terengganu. Visitors can enjoy a leisurely ride while taking in the sights and sounds of the city. Hop on for a ride to Chinatown or the Pasar Payang Central Market. Fares will be determined according to distance, duration and number of passengers. Trishaw peddlers are mostly friendly and accommodating, so feel free to have a chat and determine the rates in advance.

There are two types of boats for visitors who enjoy river cruises – the gondolas and the local boat (bot penambang). While the pretty gondolas are suitable for sightseeing, the local boats enable visitors to travel together with the local folk.

This bustling bazaar is a landmark attraction and one of the most photographed buildings in the state. Locals flock here for a profusion of items, from fruits, vegetables, pickles to freshly ground spices. A section of the building is devoted to local desserts and goodies.

BUDDHIST TEMPLES Tumpat

Kelantan is the site of some impressive Buddhist Temples. The most well-known is Wat Photivihan in Kampung Jambu. This temple houses the largest Reclining Buddha in Southeast Asia. It measures 40m in length and 9m in width.

Situated in Kampung Bunuhan, Wat Machimmaram is famed for its Sitting Buddha. It is said to be the second largest of its kind in Southeast Asia. Wat Mai Suwankhiri or the Dragonboat Temple is another famous landmark in the state, featuring replicas of a huge dragonboat guarded by two magnificent dragons.

Wat Photivihan is believed to house the largest Reclining Buddha in Southeast Asia.

CAVING IN GUA IKAN AND GUA GELAP Dabong

There are a number of caves in Kelantan, especially in the district of Gua Musang. Dabong is the gateway to most of these places. This town is about 160km to the west of Kota Bharu. The most well-known cave is Gua Ikan. Literally meaning Fish Cave, this formation was named after a fish-shaped rock.

Another popular spot for spelunking is Gua Gelap, which literally means 'dark cave'. It truly lives up to its name, with small crevices on the cave walls being the only source of natural light.

Aside from Dabong, Gua Musang too has a number of caves that are worth exploring. Among the popular caves here are Gua Cha, Gua Pintu and Gua Sidang.

Gua Cha is one of the most actively researched archaeological sites in Peninsular Malaysia. The artefacts that were found here include human skeletons and cultural objects.

KAMPUNG LAUT MOSQUE Nilam Puri

This mosque is acclaimed as the oldest in the state, and one of the oldest in the Malay archipelago. Originally situated in Kampung Laut, Tumpat, this mosque was moved to its present location in Nilam Puri after the site was flooded in 1968. This mosque was said to have been built by Islamic missionaries who travelled between Champa and Java, with the help of some locals. It is noted to have similarities to the Demak Mosque in Jawa, built in 1401. Visitors are advised to dress appropriately.

SWEET NYET KONG TEMPLE Gua Musang

This temple's modest exterior belies its historic and religious importance. It contains a sacred painting of the Goddess of Mercy, Guan Yin, that is estimated to be between 500 to 700 years old. Every year, a nine-day festival is held in honour of Guan Yin's birthday, which falls on the 19th day of the second lunar month. The celebration attracts devotees from Hong Kong, Taiwan, Japan and Korea.

According to the locals, the sacred painting was brought from China by one of the early Chinese immigrants who received divine instruction to set off for Pulau in a quest for gold. He was said to have struck gold soon after the Chinese settlement here was founded.

PANTAI TOK BALI Pasir Puteh

Idyllic and tranquil, the Tok Bali Beach is a relaxing getaway with warm waters and palm-lined beaches. Accommodation ranges from chalets to affordable beach resorts. Tok Bali is approximately 45 minutes drive from Kota Bharu. The Tok Bali Jetty is one of the staging points to Perhentian Island in Terengganu.

PANTAI KUALA PA'AMAT Sering

It is hard to believe that this quiet and calm beach at Kuala Pa' Amat was once a battlefield. This is a site of great historical significance, where the Japanese troops first landed to invade British Malaya. A fierce battle ensued and many soldiers were killed.

Today, the beach is a nostalgic destination for Japanese tourists and war veterans. There is a small Peace Monument here, with descriptions of the battle. The beach is about 12km from Kota Bharu.

It is said that the assault on Kuala Pa' Amat Beach at 12.25am on 8 December 1941 was one and a half hours before the attack on Pearl Harbour due to the difference in the International Date Line.

TRANSPORTATION

Getting There

By Air

Malaysia Airlines operates daily direct flights to the Sultan Ismail Petra Airport in Pengkalan Chepa, Kelantan. The flights depart from the Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA), which is situated in Sepang. Alternatively, visitors can board the Firefly airlines which operates from the Sultan Abdul Aziz Shah Airport in Subang, Selangor.

The budget carrier, AirAsia, flies daily to Kelantan from the Low Cost Carrier Terminal (LCCT) situated about 20km from the KLIA Main Terminal Building.

Self-Drive

There is a good network of roads linking major towns in the country to Kelantan. Kota Bharu is situated about 474km from Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia's capital city. Visitors can drive along the East West Highway. The journey from Kuala Lumpur to Kelantan takes about five hours.

By Bus

There are scheduled air-conditioned express buses from Kuala Lumpur linking most towns in Kelantan. Main destinations include Kota Bharu, Gua Musang, Rantau Panjang, Pengkalan Kubor and Tumpat. Visitors can board the bus at Hentian Putra, situated along Jalan Tun Ismail (near Putra World Trade Centre or PWTC). The journey takes about five to six hours. Tickets must be purchased in advance during school holidays and festive seasons.

By Rail

Keretapi Tanah Melayu (KTM) or Malayan Railway provides daily rail services to Kelantan. From Kuala Lumpur, visitors can board the Express Wau train from the KL Sentral Station. The train departs at 8.30pm daily and arrives in Kelantan at 10.25am the next day. Visitors from Johor and Singapore can board the Express Timuran which departs at 6.25pm from Singapore. It arrives at 9.05am the next day.

Getting Around

Getting around Kelantan is fairly easy as there are buses, taxis, trishaws and airport taxis. The local bus station is situated near to Kampung Kraftangan or the Handicraft Village. The buses here provide access to various places within Kota Bharu. To go outside of Kota Bharu town, visitors can take the buses that operate from the Jalan Bandar Bus Station. Outstation buses are available at the Jalan Hamzah Bus Terminal as well as the SKMK Langgar Bus Terminal. Buses here connect Kota Bharu to Kuala Lumpur as well as other towns in Malaysia. Taxis can be hailed from any part of the town, but determine the fare first.

The local train is an interesting mode of transport. This train operates within the state, and connects Tumpat (situated in the state's north) to Gua Musang in the south. The service begins at 3.05am from Tumpat.

To explore Kota Bharu in an unconventional way, visitors can try taking the trishaw. Trishaws are usually concentrated at the Pasar Siti Khadijah area and its vicinity. Visitors are advised to agree on the price in advance.
